RANDOM FACTS

1. If a horse wins a race "hands down" it means the jockey never raised his whip during the race.
2. Official baseball rules state that an umpire may not be replaced during a game except if he becomes ill, injured, or if he dies.
3. Before the turn of the century, prize fighters fought bare fisted. Matches sometimes lasted more than one hundred rounds and were counted by knock outs.
4. In bowling, three strikes in a row was called a turkey. The term originated in the 1800s when at holiday time, the first member of a team to score three strikes in a row won a free turkey.
