This year's comedy lineup includes one of the funniest Comedians performing today, David Studebaker. Named "One of the 10 Best Comics to Watch" by SF Weekly, David Studebaker has delighted audiences for over a decade with his brand of fun, fresh, and uplifting comedy, blending music, personal stories, and pop culture into his highly interactive shows. His comedy can be heard in regular rotation on Sirius XM Radio, his new comedy special "The Oracle of Dry Bar" is available now on the Dry Bar Comedy streaming network, and he's been featured on Fox, ABC, the San Francisco Chronicle and a variety of radio shows and publications. Beyond Stand-up, David was the host of 'Pivot On The Street' for Pivot TV's National Network, has emceed multiple awards shows, including LCA's Celebrity Awards Gala at the Beverly Hilton, and he recently won "Best Director" at the Oregon Documentary Film Festival for his hit documentary series: David's Ark.

In October of 2020, he released Lone Star Lance, his laugh-out-loud debut mystery novel and in April of 2019, he took on the biggest project of his life: the birth of his first-born son, who has provided a wealth of material and poop diapers. In 2022, baby boy #2 arrived, along with the Audiobook version of Lone Star Lance, narrated by David and available on Audible.

Originally from the San Francisco Bay Area, he now resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Tina, his two dogs, and Matthew and Teddy, the aforementioned poop-dispensers.

Also, back by popular demand is MUTZIE, a multiple award-winning laugh riot from the minute he walks on stage until his show-stopping closing with improv skills that are second to none. You've seen him on Six Seasons of BET'S Comic View and he was named "New Orleans Entertainer of The Year TWICE". Watching Mutzie on stage is like watching a very likable class clown, you don't know what's coming next, but you know it's coming. Mutzie is one of the funniest clean comedians working today. These two comedians are a guaranteed good time for all!
